

A SHORT SERMON WITH A MORAL.

Upon his return from Europe, Mr. CHAUNCEY M. DEWEY stated that one of the things that impressed him most during his visit was the sudden collapse of BISMARCK as a political figure and influence. Only a few months ago the Iron Chancellor was one of the most prominent men in the world, with the fate of nations hanging upon his word; to-day he is a mere spectator of the scenes in which he was so recently a leading actor, and his name has no more meaning, so far as current affairs are concerned, than that of any ordinary citizen. "The people of Germany have found out that they can do without him," Mr. DEWEY says, "and so they have practically forgotten him."

The history of all countries teaches the same lesson. No one man is essential to any position. No man does anything so well but that scores could perform it equally as well. A boot-black dies in New York city or goes away and his position is easily filled. Big and little, good and bad, the individual is easily replaced when fortune puts him aside.

MORAL:—Put out CHAS. D. UPCHURCH and the others of the court house ring. Their opponents are better men and will make better officers.

At the negro moonlight speaking in the Second Ward, managed by J. ROWAN ROGERS (white), STEWART ELLISON (col.), CHAS. D. UPCHURCH (white), C. W. HOOVER (col.), T. R. PURNELL (white), and fifty other negroes, one negro orator cried out in tones loud enough to be heard two squares: "Any Republican that splits his ticket is a disgrace to himself, and is an enemy to his family." And he was loudly applauded by that variegated gathering. And yet it is said that some Democrats will scratch their ticket. They will not do it if they have patriotism or love for their race.

Who is the bravest, honestest and best man in Wake county? There are many good ones, but there is not a better one than JOHN W. THOMPSON. He dares always to do his duty and to champion the cause of the white people of Wake county. The Radicals oppose him violently. Cause: He is honest and free from pretence. The people trust him, and every Democrat will gladly and enthusiastically support him.

EVERY vote cast for HOOVER (col.) and his partner, PURNELL, is a vote to put the city of Raleigh again under the rule of the negroes! No tax-payer in Raleigh who has any regard for the prosperity of the city will vote for them or for any other Radical. They are the enemies of good government.

A NEW registration is required this year. The registration books will close ten days before the election. Register this week. Do not put it off.

RALEIGH IN BRIEF.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS IN AND AROUND THE CAPITAL.

Short Items of News Gathered on the Fly by the Chronicle's Reporters.

Telephone No. 23 has been put in Mr. D. T. Swindell's residence.

Three new students were enrolled at the A. & M. College yesterday, making the total number seventy-four.

There is considerable talk about an electric street railway, but it seems impossible to find any bottom to the matter.

Six more new convicts were received at the penitentiary yesterday—two from Mitchell county and four from Randolph.

The opening performance of the great Tennyson and Dawson Gift Carnival will be in Metropolitan hall on Monday night.

Isn't it about time that all the parties who contemplate joining the trades procession for the State fair had a meeting to consider matters?

A very prominent musical gentleman of the city is moving for the formation of a musical club for rendering vocal and instrumental music, and also for producing operas, &c.

Mr. Ben. M. Moore has a ten acre field of cotton just west of the city from which he is calculating to get about two bales per acre. The calculation is not an extravagant one either.

The praise service to be held at Edenton Street M. E. Church this p. m. at 4 o'clock will be very interesting. It is the first of a series of union services by the various churches of the city, and everybody is invited.

The Oxford Land and Improvement Company will distribute lots to its stockholders on October 9th, 10th and 11th, and on the same days will sell a large number of beautiful and desirable lots. Excursion rates will be given on all the railroads.

Rev. B. C. Allred (Methodist) of the Rolesville circuit reports that he closed a good meeting last Sunday night, at Soapstone. He had 12 conversions and reclamations, and the church was much blessed. He has held five meetings this year and has had about 80 conversions up to date, and 75 accessions to the church.—Spirit of the Age.

Some people have a cheek which in extent can only be rivalled by the immensity of space. If some city people will recall how they acted on barbecue day they will know who is being talked about. They said or did nothing to help along the enterprise, but when it was a success, they wanted and almost sent after the whole thing, including the trenches in which the meat was barbecued. Some of them were "big" folks too.

A CHRONICLE reporter was yesterday shown some wheat eight inches high, and the seed wheat was planted just seven days ago. This is a tall sounding statement, and the CHRONICLE does not expect the numerous wisecracks whose eyes may fall upon this to believe it; but if they want to see the wheat and substantiate the fact for themselves, let them call on Mr. Charlie Hervey at Edwards & Broughton's printing house.

COMING AND GOING.

Some of The Folks You Know and Their Doings.

Iredell Meares, Esq., is in the city.

Mr. P. M. Wilson has returned to Winston.

Maj. E. G. Harrell has gone to New York.

Mrs. Leo D. Heartt, of Durham, is visiting in the city.

Col. F. H. Cameron has returned from a business trip west.

Mrs. J. S. Carr and Miss Carr, of Durham, spent yesterday here.

Mr. Walters Durham, of Wake Forest College, is visiting his parents here.

Mrs. Robt. Bridges, Sr., who has been visiting here, left yesterday for Chapel Hill.

Mr. C. M. Weathers, who has been visiting here for some time, returned South yesterday.

Mrs. Dr. W. A. Nelson, of Asheville, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Jordan, of this city.

Mr. C. B. Edwards, Jr., of Wake Forest College, is spending Sunday with his father's family here.

M. B. Cole, proprietor of the successful printing establishment at Sanford, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lyon, who have been away at the North all the summer, have returned home again.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity to-day: Rain early in the day, followed by clearing weather. Decidedly colder; northerly winds.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Forecast for Virginia: Fair, clearing in southeastern portion; cooler; northerly winds; fair Monday.

For North Carolina, fair in the interior; rain on the coast; cooler; northerly winds.

Dress Goods.

Have you seen our fall stock yet? It is a wonder, a marvel. Its size and variety are something enormous. Previous efforts are far excelled, and to try to describe its vastness within these narrow confines would be treating it unfairly. To-morrow we show new things in dress goods, which, for elegance and style, will be worth your while in stopping to see.

THE COTTON MARKET.

An immense increase of receipts over last year.—A Busy Day Yesterday.

Early yesterday morning cablegrams from Liverpool announced a drop of one-eighth of a cent in the price of cotton, and this advice took local markets by surprise, for it appears that the drop occurred before operations for the day began. It created a little flurry in the Raleigh market, but it had no weakening effect on the energy and disposition of Raleigh buyers to take all the cotton offered at the best prices.

The buyers had a very lively day indeed. Country wagons began to roll in by sunrise—they poured all day from every direction and before night 782 bales of cotton had been unloaded and sold.

At one time Wilmington street, Martin street, and other cross streets adjacent to Exchange place, were almost totally blocked with cotton wagons. It was with the greatest difficulty that a lane wide enough for a vehicle to pass could be kept open through these streets. Such a sight had not been seen in Raleigh since 1883, and it was so striking that photographic views were taken of the scene from various points.

So far there is a great increase in the receipts this year over last year.

The following is the official statement:

Receipts for the week ending September 24, 1890..... 1,932
Same week last year..... 756
Increase over last year..... 1,156

Receipts to date from Sept. 1st..... 5,418
Same time last year..... 1,139
Increase over last year..... 4,279

Shipments for the past week..... 1,470
Stock in store..... 1,014

Other Receipts.

The above statement only gives the net receipts of cotton in Raleigh, by which is meant the amount actually bought from wagons and from cars by local buyers.

A large amount of cotton is stopped here to be compressed, and this equals or exceeds the amount purchased directly.

Ten thousand bales of cotton have passed through the compress this season. This does not include the large amount of cotton that has been shipped to the Alamance mills and other mills in this State.

Including all this cotton, it appears that Raleigh's gross cotton receipts for this season, so far, will approximate 12,000 bales.

Fun and Laughter.

To-morrow night at the Metropolitan opera house, the Tennyson & Dawson Company will begin their weekly engagement. The Richmond State says:

Tennyson & Dawson's Specialty Company had another good audience at the Opera House last night and made the usual distribution of presents. Every feature of the performance is excellent. Billie McCoy and Minnie McCoy, are an exquisite pair of Irish character artists, and their double clog dance was wonderful to see. Majilton, the fantastic humorist, is a whole show in himself, and with his skillful juggling feats never fails to reap a harvest of applause. Little Nellie McCoy is a charming little danseuse and a great favorite. All of the other specialists are accomplished artists in their respective lines: the Morphs in their magical exhibition; Mr. James F. Lamb, the ventriloquist; Billie McCoy, vocalist, dancer and comedian, &c. Performance every night at popular prices. This show is owned by Southern men and, therefore, commends itself to Southern audiences.

The leading prizes were drawn last night by the following parties: Van Seay, dinner set of 120 pieces; Mr. McCarty, velvet covered brass table; Jno. W. Pickett, castor. The leading present to-night will be a set of chamber furniture.

The presents given away will be on exhibition in front of hall to-morrow.

Soldiers' Home and State Fair.

A large amount of matter relative to the Soldiers' Home was sent into the mails yesterday from the office of the superintendent of the fair. This matter goes, first to the newspapers of the State, and through them into the homes of the people generally. The plan of holding entertainments at the time of the State fair, and of working for the Home during the days between now and the fair, is a matter of mutual benefit. The Home will help the fair, and the fair will help the Home.

Every Democratic voter ought to have his name on the registration books without delay.

Coffee.

The buying of coffees already roasted has become so common that more than half the people in every large town use them. It saves a lot of trouble, and is fully as economical. We give special attention to roasted coffees, to have them always fresh and of perfect quality. Java, Maracibo, Arabuck's, Ariosa, &c., &c., always in stock. Also a full line of green coffees, from Rio to Mocha.

"The Weather Daily Cooler Grows; Summer Season's Drawing to a Close."

As the cold weather approaches it behooves one to make suitable preparation, and the question now on the public mind is where shall I trade? Who has the most select stock of Dress Goods? From whom can I get the best bargains? And a dozen kindred questions. As the fall season is just opening, we have this to say to our patrons: Our stocks were never so large or so well assorted. They have been bought with the most diligent research, and will compare both in price and style with those of any first-class DRY GOODS STORE in this, our Southern Country.

McKIMMON, MOSELEY AND MCGEE.

Lady, Did You Ever Change Your Mind?

If you have made up your mind to buy yourself a new dress next week and you haven't seen our stock, why stop right still and change your mind one time, and come and look at our goods, and get our prices before you buy. Ladies, it will pay you to do this. We have almost any style of dress goods and trimmings to be found in any store, and, as you well know, our prices in this line, like they are in shoes, are lower for the finer grades of goods, than elsewhere in the city. We have all the new trimmings used this season. Our Mr. Henry Thomas, whom most of the Raleigh people know, will take great pleasure in showing you our line of goods and we feel sure that he will seldom fail in pleasing you in your purchases. Our millinery goods will be opened for your inspection early next week. We will show a much handsomer line of these goods this season than last. That most popular milliner, Mrs. Sarah King, will be with us again this season and will serve you with pleasure.

SWINDELL'S.

In order to test the comparative merits of the various newspaper advertising mediums, and at the same time benefit the readers thereof, we shall consider this advertisement for one dollar in payment toward purchase of $20 or more worth of goods; if cut out and presented at time of purchase, either in person or by mail.

SWINDELL.

The New Discovery.

You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any Throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial bottles free at John Y. McKae's drug store.

The Second Consignment.

That popular and reliable old veteran meat man, J. Schwartz, has just received a second consignment of those magnificent beef cattle which he has made such a reputation. "Schwartz's beef" has become a household word now, and it invariably means the best beef that can be had from anywhere. He frequently makes a parade of his beef cattle, and when they go up the street there is a rush to the doors to see them. He always shows superb animals, and people's mouths water for the meats which he sells over his counters. He makes a specialty of corned beef (his own make) and delivers it at from eight to ten cents per pound. He gives strict attention to other meats and his pork is as fine as the finest. He serves out the choicest pork at from ten to twelve cents. He sells beef from 6 to 8 to 10 to 12 cents. Every one is invited to stop at his meat market on Fayetteville street and see it and be convinced that he keeps the finest beef in the city.

THE WORLD'S COMMERCE.

New York, September 27.—Messrs. Hubbard, Price & Company, in their cotton circular to-night say: Our cables this morning report that the annual account of the Liverpool stock showed that it was 71,010 bales less than the estimated figures, upon which previous statements have been made up. The stock of American growth, however, only showed a deficiency of 29,300 bales, and as the general expectation had been that the deficiency would be at least 50,000 bales, the disappointment to the bulls was severe and the decline consequent upon it and the weakness of yesterday here was nearly 4 64. It is quite possible, also, that the unsettled feeling was aggravated by rumors which are current here of serious financial troubles in London. These, however, are without confirmation, and two banking firms of prominence, our London cable tells us, are still in trouble by the apprehension of some financial disturbance, and the specialties in which London is interested have been conspicuously weak all day, notwithstanding an increase of $12,000,000 in the bank reserve for the week.

Receipts at the ports estimated at 35,000 bales, against 31,832 bales last week, and 37,375 bales last year.
